❖ God loves you!

If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him!

Matthew 7:11

❖ Love God back with all your heart

And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.' This is the first commandment.

If the most important commandment
is to love the Lord with all our hearts, then the greatest sin would be to just go through the motions!

People in love act much differently than people with a sense of obligation

Francis Chan

The first commandment is not, “obey God”.

It is to “love God”.

If you love me, you will keep my commandments.

John 14:21

You can keep God's commandments without loving Him.

Do you love God, or do you serve because you are obligated to?

There is a big difference between knowing God's love intellectually and knowing it intimately.

Many people view their connection with God as a contract instead of a relationship.

❖ Take time to consider what God has done for you

Many, O Lord my God, are Your wonderful works Which You have done; And Your thoughts toward us Cannot be recounted to You in order; If I would declare and speak of them, They are more than can be numbered.

❖ True love continues when things get hard

When you give your life to God, it doesn't mean that life will never be hard. However, it does mean that God sticks with you through the hard times. He said He will never leave us or forsake us.

Now we see things imperfectly, like puzzling reflections in a mirror, but then we will see everything with perfect clarity. All that I know now is partial and incomplete, but then I will know everything completely, just as God now knows me completely.

The irony is that while God doesn't need us but still wants us. We desperately need God but don't really want Him.

Francis Chan

Do you love this God who is everything, or do you just love
everything He gives you?
