The Story of Jesus

Now when Jesus had crossed over again by boat to the other side, a great multitude gathered to Him; and He was by the sea. And behold, one of the rulers of the synagogue came, Jairus by name. And when he saw Him, he fell at His feet and begged Him earnestly, saying, "My little daughter lies at the point of death. Come and lay Your hands on her, that she may be healed, and she will live." So Jesus went with him, and a great multitude followed Him and thronged Him.

Mark 5:21-41

Mark 5:21-41

Now a certain woman had a flow of blood for twelve years, and had suffered many things from many physicians. She had spent all that she had and was no better, but rather grew worse.

Mark 5:21-41

When she heard about Jesus, she came behind Him in the crowd and touched His garment. For she said, "If only I may touch His clothes, I shall be made well." Immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of the affliction.

Mark 5:21-41

And Jesus, immediately knowing in Himself that power had gone out of Him, turned around in the crowd and said, "Who touched My clothes?" But His disciples said to Him, "You see the multitude thronging You, and You say, Who touched Me?"

Mark 5:21-41

And He looked around to see her who had done this thing. But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth. And He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be healed of your affliction."

Mark 5:21-41

While He was still speaking, some came from the ruler of the synagogue's house who said, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?" As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, He said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Do not be afraid; only believe."

Mark 5:21-41

And He permitted no one to follow Him except Peter, James, and John the brother of James. Then He came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and saw a tumult and those who wept and wailed loudly.

Mark 5:21-41

When He came in, He said to them,
"Why make this commotion and weep?
The child is not dead, but sleeping."
And they ridiculed Him. But when He had put them all outside, He took the father and the mother of the child, and those who were with Him, and entered where the child was lying.

Mark 5:21-41

Then He took the child by the hand, and said to her, "Talitha, cumi," which is translated, "Little girl, I say to you, arise." Immediately the girl arose and walked, for she was twelve years of age. And they were overcome with great amazement. But He commanded them strictly that no one should know it, and said that something should be given her to eat.

You don't need to have everything figured out to come to God. You just need to have faith based on what you do know

And it is impossible to please God without faith. Anyone who wants to come to him must believe that God exists and that he rewards those who sincerely seek him.

Hebrews 11:6

Looking at the doctrine of Darwinism, which undergirded my atheism for so many years, it didn't take me long to conclude that it was simply too far-fetched to be credible.

Lee Strobel (2009). "The Case for a Creator: A Journalist Investigates Scientific Evidence That Points Toward God", p.355, Harper Collins

I realized that if I were to embrace Darwinism and its underlying premise of naturalism, I would have to believe that:

Lee Strobel (2009). "The Case for a Creator: A Journalist Investigates Scientific Evidence That Points Toward God", p.355, Harper Collins

1. Nothing produces everything

2. Non-life produces life

3. Randomness produces fine-tuning

Lee Strobel (2009). "The Case for a Creator: A Journalist Investigates Scientific Evidence That Points Toward God", p.355, Harper Collins

4. Chaos produces information

5. Unconsciousness produces consciousness

6. Non-reason produces reason....

Lee Strobel has explained that he just did not have enough faith to continue in his atheism
