

JOURNEY

Now Jesus learned that the Pharisees had heard that he was gaining and baptizing more disciples than John—although in fact it was not Jesus who baptized, but his disciples. So he left Judea and went back once more to Galilee.

John 4:1–8 (NIV)

Now he had to go through Samaria. So he came to a town in Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of ground Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired as he was from the journey, sat down by the well. It was about noon.

John 4:1–8 (NIV)

When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, “Will you give me a drink?” (His disciples had gone into the town to buy food.)

John 4:1–8 (NIV)

JOURNEY

Now he had to go through Samaria.

John 4:1–8 (NIV)

The Samaritan woman said to him, “You are a Jew and I am a Samaritan woman. How can you ask me for a drink?” (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.)

John 4:9 (NIV)

Jesus answered her, “If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water.” “Sir,” the woman said, “you have nothing to draw with and the well is deep. Where can you get this living water?”

John 4:10–15 (NIV)

Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did also his sons and his livestock?”

John 4:10–15 (NIV)

Jesus answered, “Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, but whoever drinks the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life.”

John 4:10–15 (NIV)

- ❖ Jesus offers what we all desperately desire

15.055.P.E. - NAPLOUSE. FEMMES DE LA SAMARITAINE

I denied myself nothing my eyes desired; I refused my heart no pleasure. My heart took delight in all my labor, and this was the reward for all my toil.

Ecclesiastes 2:10–11 (NIV)

Yet when I surveyed all that my hands had done and what I had toiled to achieve, everything was meaningless, a chasing after the wind; nothing was gained under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 2:10–11 (NIV)

So many of the things we are told are so important in life just don't satisfy.

We look in all the wrong places to find fulfillment that can only be found in Jesus.

“My people have committed two sins: They have forsaken me, the spring of living water, and have dug their own cisterns, broken cisterns that cannot hold water.

Jeremiah 2:13 (NIV)

Oh, the joys of those who do not follow the advice of the wicked, or stand around with sinners, or join in with mockers. But they delight in the law of the Lord, meditating on it day and night.

Psalm 1 (NLT)

They are like trees planted along the riverbank, bearing fruit each season. Their leaves never wither, and they prosper in all they do.

Psalm 1 (NLT)

but whoever drinks the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life.”

John 4:14 (NIV)

Why should we look to the world to satisfy our thirst when we have a living spring of water already in us?

Jesus is more than enough!

Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:7 (NLT)

• Jesus offers what we all desperately desire

Jesus replied, “If you only knew the gift God has for you and who you are speaking to, you would ask me, and I would give you living water.”

Philippians 4:7 (NLT)

You say, 'I am rich; I have acquired wealth and do not need a thing.' But you do not realize that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind and naked.

Revelation 3:17 (NIV)

So many don't know what they are missing and how desperately they need Christ

for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

Romans 3:23 (NIV)

The woman said to him, “Sir, give me this water so that I won’t get thirsty and have to keep coming here to draw water.” He told her, “Go, call your husband and come back.”

John 4:15–19 (NIV)

“I have no husband,” she replied. Jesus said to her, “You are right when you say you have no husband. The fact is, you have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. What you have just said is quite true.” “Sir,” the woman said, “I can see that you are a prophet.”

John 4:15–19 (NIV)

- The background is a complex collage of numerous small photographs. These photos depict diverse individuals in various contexts: some are smiling and looking at the camera, others are walking or running outdoors, and some appear to be in group settings. The collage is layered with several large, semi-transparent geometric shapes, primarily diamonds and triangles, which serve as a design element. A prominent dark blue diamond shape is centered over the right side of the image, containing two white bullet points. Additionally, there are diagonal bands of lighter colors, possibly representing water or light, cutting across the composition. The overall aesthetic is modern and inspirational, emphasizing themes of journey, discovery, and human connection.

❖ EVERYONE needs to hear what Jesus offers

It's really sad that so many people unnecessarily struggle in life.

And then he told them, “Go into all the world and preach the Good News to everyone.

Mark 16:15 (NLT)

...I try to find common ground with everyone, doing everything I can to save some. I do everything to spread the Good News and share in its blessings.

1 Corinthians 9:22–23 (NLT)

The Spirit and the bride say, “Come!” And let the one who hears say, “Come!” Let the one who is thirsty come; and let the one who wishes take the free gift of the water of life.

Revelation 22:17 (NIV)
