In Psalm 119 God tells us the value of reading the bible
over 170 times.

That should get our attention.

Cause me to understand the way of your precepts,
that I may meditate on your wonderful deeds.

Oh, how I love your law! I meditate on it all day long.
Your commands are always with me and make me wiser than my enemies. I have more insight than all my teachers, for I meditate on your statutes.

Blessed is the one who does not walk in step with the wicked or stand in the way that sinners take or sit in the company of mockers, but whose delight is in the law of the Lord, and who meditates on his law day and night. That person is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither— whatever they do prospers.

Partial obedience is not obedience.

You will never experience all God has for you until you fully surrender to Him.

But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.
